Indigenous Peoples Scholarship program

Catalyst Paper's Indigenous Peoples scholarship program is designed to provide assistance with the financial needs of Indigenous Peoples high school graduates entering their first year at a public university, community college or institute of technology.
Six scholarships are available in total, valued at a maximum of $1,000 each.

Who's eligible

To be eligible, the applicant must be a recognized status Cowichan Tribes First Nation, Halalt First Nation, Lake Cowichan First Nation, Lyackson First Nation, Penelakut First Nation, Stz'uminus First Nation band member, or a status Inuit or Metis living in the community who is planning to become a full-time student at a technical institute, community college or accredited public university, following high school graduation and receipt of the award. Deferment of one academic year is permitted where the applicant is participating in a recognized Grade 12 student exchange program.

The scholarship

Six scholarships which cover the student's first year tuition (up to a maximum of $1,000 each for a technical institute, accredited public university or community college) will be granted to a student graduating from a Vancouver Island high school and is a recognized status Cowichan Tribes First Nation, Halalt First Nation, Lake Cowichan First Nation, Lyackson First Nation, Penelakut First Nation, Stz'uminus First Nation band member, or a status Inuit or Metis living in the community. Applicants must be graduating in 2017.

How to apply

Application forms are available from Mrs. Darlene Poole or From your local high school's counselling office.

Completed application forms and full transcript of marks from previous year of study completed, plus interim transcripts for the current year should be returned to the address on the cover page. Application must be accompanied by a hand-written letter detailing your reason for seeking higher education; a brief description of the course of study you have chosen; your involvement in school, sports and community activities and leadership. Applications must be received by May 1, 2017. Those received after the deadline will not be considered.

Selection of scholarship winners is based on student's academic and sports performance, demonstrated leadership, and citizenship qualities.

A committee selects the successful applicants. The committee members are representatives from the company. The decision of the selection committee is final.

Selection of scholarship winners

Please answer all questions and submit required documentation. We do not require references. Incomplete applications will not be considered for scholarships.

Announcement of winners will be made by telephone to your band's office, at your high school's awards ceremony, and potentially at a ceremonial event of your band's choosing.

Scholarship program application

NOTE: All questions must be completed as accurately as possible and accompanied by the required documentation. Incomplete applications will not be considered. Although deadline for receipt of applications is May 1, 2017, we urge you to submit your completed application, complete transcript from your most recently completed year of study, and interim transcripts from the current year as early as possible. Incomplete documents will void your application.
